

HARRODS' EXCLUSIVE NEW WHISKY COLLECTION

The palates of single malt connoisseurs will be tingling at news of Harrods' latest whisky venture, The Dalmore Paterson Collection. The famous store in Knightsbridge, London, has collaborated with the Highland malt distillers to create a unique collection of rare and vintage whiskies. Each of the collection's 12 bottles has been personally assessed, nosed, tasted and selected by The Dalmore's Master Distiller, Richard Paterson. The whiskies are presented in a bespoke wooden cabinet by Gavin Robertson, and accompanied by a hand written ledger book, detailing Paterson's seminal compilation. The Dalmore Paterson Collection is available in-store from Harrods now, priced at £987,500 ($1,601,641).
